

Lake Champlain Geographic Response Plan

Sandbar LC-VT-07

ID	Location and Description	Response Strategy	Implementation
LC-07-01 	Lamoille River a.) Lamoille River Boat Ramp – Lat. 44°36'19.16"N Lon. 73°13'5.05"W b.) Sears Fishing Access Area – Lat. 44°36'14.36"N Lon. 73°12'22.62"W	Divert and Collect – Shoreside Divert incoming oil to shoreside recovery locations to protect downstream areas of the Lamoille River and Lake Champlain.	Deploy anchors and boom with skiffs. For (a) Deploy 550 ft. of 12”-18” boom at the proper angle in a single leg or cascade array to divert incoming oil to the collection site. For (b) Deploy 400 ft. of 12”-18” boom at the proper angle in a single leg or cascade array to divert incoming oil to the collection site.

Lake Champlain Geographic Response Plan

Sandbar LC-VT-07

Response Resources	Staging Area Site Access	Resources Protected	Special Considerations	ID
Deployment Equipment 950 ft. 12"-18" boom 4 anchor sets 8 anchor stakes 2 shoreside recovery systems Vessels 1 work boat or skiff Personnel/Shift 2 vessel crew (per vessel)/2 shoreside responders Tending Vessels 1 work boat or skiff Personnel/Shift 2 vessel crew (per vessel)/2 shoreside responders	Staging Area: a.) VT F&W Lamoille River Fishing Access Area/Boat Ramp b.) VT F&W Sears Fishing Access Area Site Access: VT F&W Lamoille River Fishing Access Area/Boat Ramp Chart 14782	Fish – Fish Species of Special Concern, Lake Sturgeon Threatened/Endangered Species – Rare, Species of Special Concern,, Spiny Softshell Turtle Cultural Resources- Historical/Archaeologic al Sites, Native American Tribal Lands Human use-Boat ramp, Public Drinking Water Supply, Public Beach, State Park, Water Intake	Lake and river conditions including flow rate and flood stage vary depending on time of year and heavy rain and/or snowfall. Survey site prior to deployment and modify deployment tactics and techniques as appropriate based on observed river conditions. If ice is present GRP tactics and strategies must be reevaluated. Vessel operators should have local knowledge and experience operating in riverine environments. Entire site surveyed: 06/09/17 Field tested: No	LC-07-01 DV

Site Photographs and Contact Information

Lamoille River Delta and Sandbar State Park Area looking north. Sites DV-01a and DV-01b at lower right.

Site of DV-01a at Lamoille Fishing Access Area (left) and DV-01b at Sears Fishing Access Area (right).

CONTACT INFORMATION:

All VT Fire Departments: Call 911

EPA Region 1 Tribal Program: 617-918-1123

Missisquoi National Wildlife Refuge: 802-868-4781

National Response Center: 800-424-8802

VT Comm. on Native American Affairs: 802-779-7015

VT DEC (24-Hour): 800-641-5005

VT Drinking Water & Groundwater: 802-741-5311

VT Emergency Mgmt & Homeland Security: 800-347-0488

VT Fish & Wildlife Dept (Essex): 802-878-1564

VT Hazmat Response Team: 800-641-5005

VT Div of Historical Preservation: 802-272-2509

Lake Champlain GRPs have been incorporated into EPA Region One's Inland Area Contingency Plan (ACP) and is available at the following website: https://nrtqa.ert.org/site/doc_list.aspx?site_id=38 or accessed via QR reader-enabled smartphones by scanning the QR code at right.

